Do you believe that students deserve the very best education? Do you want to work with enthusiastic, dedicated colleagues who are committed to our students? This role is for those who like a challenge, working with students and enjoy doing something different every day.

As a UNICEF Rights Respecting School, we are a socially responsible and collaborative school committed to the development of every member of its learning community. It is essential that the post holder shares our school ethos which is firmly rooted in a restorative approach. We work restoratively with students, families and with each other to maintain the strong community culture and our very strong inclusive ethos.

This role is for those who like a challenge, working with students and enjoy doing something different every day.

This position would suit candidates who hold Qualified Teacher Status.

The Salterns Academy Trust and Trafalgar School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We will ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All successful candidates will be subject to Disclosure and Barring checks along with other relevant employment checks.

Early applications are encouraged and we reserve the right to close the vacancy if a suitable candidate is found.

To apply please complete the application form that can be found on the website www.trafalgarschool.org.uk and return it to recruitment@trafalgarschool.org.uk. Alternatively, please contact Mrs J Smith at Trafalgar School.

All applications will be acknowledged.
